

Obituary – Cindie Jane (Willey) Wirgler

Cindie Jane (Willey) Wirgler died on Nov. 10, 2011 at Shasta Regional Medical Center in Redding. She was 64 years old.

Cindie was born on July 19, 1947 at Stanford Hospital. Her parents were Robert and Claudia Willey (deceased) of Burlingame, CA. She is survived by her husband of 45 years, Ron Wirgler; two daughters, Traci Wirgler-Gallardo and Tara Wirgler; and her sister, Dianne Willey. Cindie graduated from Burlingame High School in Burlingame, CA.

At BHS, she was on the Assemblies and Rally Commissions and AGS Big 'n' Little Sisters and Publicity committees. She belonged to Kuipos Tri-Y outside of school. Following graduation, Cindie studied cosmetology and was a hairdresser for a short time. She also managed her parent's store and worked Liberty House in Hayward and Macy's in Newark and Redding, retiring in 2009 after 26 years with Macy's.

Cindie loved sports. She coached soccer, rooted for the 49ers and Stanford University. She attended many A's and Giants games. She also enjoyed horseback riding, jet skiing, snow skiing and basking in the sun. Cindie and Ron were members of the Golden State Rods Car Club, where they had several new friends and attended car shows and drag races.

At home, Cindie loved to garden. Her favorite flower was the hydrangea. She loved all the critters in her yard, mostly her hummingbirds. Cindie's morning ritual always began with music, coffee and being out in the garden.
